

County News

NEW FRANKFORT

R. H. Smith, of Marshall, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in this locality.

Miss Josephene Hermann, of Ayers, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. H. Bohlken.

Louis Reisacher purchased the property belonging to Mr. Horner.

Vandel Fritch, of St. Louis, attended the funeral of his brother, which took place here Monday.

Edgar Ballew and wife have rented Mrs. Baiers' residence and moved there last week.

Warner and Cameron bought a car load of cattle from C. Thierfelder.

A sad accident occurred last Thursday night while Joe Fritch, of New Frankfort, was coming from Slater to Gilliam on the fast train (it is supposed he was beating his way) and as the train doesn't stop at Gilliam, Fritz jumped killing him instantly.

This is only another lesson to boys who try and steal a ride and risk their own lives in doing so. Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church, Monday Feb. 5th, and the remains laid to rest in the New Frankfort cemetery.

Most of the farmers got a spell on them and dragged the roads, and such an improvement as it is. Keep the good work moving.

NEW HOME

The ground-hog saw his shadow on the 2nd of February and they say that accounts for bad weather hereafter.

Mrs. John Dierking and Uncle Carol Logsdon (as he is well known by that name) are on the sick list at this writing.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, of Elmwood, are sick with a slight attack of pneumonia.

Misses Frances Reager, of Elmwood, and Nannie Copeland, of this vicinity, were guests of the Misses Harris Saturday night and Sunday. Miss Reager also stayed Sunday night.

Mrs. Anna and Walter Larue gave a goose dinner Sunday, those present, were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monegali, Mr. and Mrs. August Katlander and family and Messrs. Henry Monegali, Grover and Edmond Allen.

Miss Martha Copeland was the guest of Miss Bessie Knecht Tuesday night.

Arthur Maye went to Sweet Springs Tuesday night to join the "Odd Fellows' Lodge."

Miss Lula King began her school in the Logsdon and Frizzel district Monday, after several weeks absence on account of the illness of her father, Leeper King, who had paralysis.

Mrs. Lula Monegali was the guest of Mrs. Anna Larue last Friday.

Walter Larue, Henry Monegali and Will Katlander were in Blackburn Saturday.

SALINE VALLEY

Here we are again after a few weeks silence.

It is a little like winter at

Miles' Special

Coffee

is 25c a pound, and worth it,
Try it to-day!

F. W. MILES, Marshall.

present.

The ground hog never got to see his shadow last Friday morning, judging by the old saying, we are to have nice weather in the future.

Joseph Giger and George Sellmeyer made a business trip to the county seat last Monday.

William Steffen was trading in Little Rock Monday.

O. Olendorff and daughter, Mary, were in Little Rock one day last week.

Henry Johning and wife were shopping in Glasgow last Friday.

Joe F. Giger, who held a position as salesman with Sears Bros. at Glasgow, is now at his home again.

Dr. W. L. Sharp, of Little Rock, was called to see Dan Shaffer, who is on the sick list, Sunday.

How was Sunday for an old time winter day?

Georg Giger, who was on a visit to relatives and friends in St. Louis, Franklin, Gasconade and Osage Co.'s returned home last Monday. George says in all his travel in southeast Mo., he never saw no country that could come up with Saline in improvements.

D. L. Fields, of Oak Ridge, was in this vicinity last Saturday.

Eddie Spreitzer was a G. A. G. visitor last Saturday.

George and John Jacoby, of Watonga, Oklahoma, are the guests of friends here at this writing. The boys used to live here and are certainly glad to be in the vicinity of their old stamping grounds.

Lund has changed hands the last few weeks. Joe Giger sold his interest in the Olendorff farm to Mrs. Giger and bought the Noah Lee farm.

F. P. Cott, wife and children, of Slater, are the guests of friends in this locality at this writing.

NORTON

Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Johnson a boy, Jan. 30.

Mrs. Susan Brown and Mrs. Swisher were visiting in Marshall Friday and Saturday.

Preston Yates is visiting his sister, Mrs. Julia Wood, near Orearville.

Mike Swisher was the dinner guest at I. W. Reynolds' Saturday.

James Ancell was calling in Norton Monday.

Misses Katherine Seber and Imogene Sherman were the guests of Miss Jewell Rhodes Saturday.

We are sorry to learn that Robert Liles is sick and had to go to Kansas City for treatment.

Mrs. Liles returned Monday after a several days visit with Mrs. Cook.

Read the Republican

BLUE LICK

Rev. Neal, of Lexington, preached Sunday and Monday night at the church.

Fuller Beard moved to his farm that he bought last Saturday.

Jas. Driskell will move to Kansas in a few days, to make that his future home.

We are having very bad roads, scarcely any traveling done, except on foot.

The sick in this vicinity are better.

Cap Wingfield who has been sick since Christmas is some better.

NORTH GRAND PASS

Our vicinity was visited with a snow, which makes rabbit hunting rare sport.

"Chink" Demoss bought, of Sparks Bros., a very fine team of mules last week.

The principle business in our little village is corn hauling.

A dance was given by Henry Hubbard last Friday night and every one reports a good time.

Miss Mabel Stegleman, of Upper Bottom, spent Sunday with the Misses Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover went to house-keeping last Wednesday in the little cottage west of A. D. Plattners, this was an ideal love match and the newly wedded start into their married life with flattering prospects for a long and happy journey.

Lost, strayed or stolen—One old blue mottled hen, with only three tail feathers and no toes. The finder will please bring the same to Myrtle Edwards and receive the reward: A Dutch quarter.

"Dollie" Demoss visited his uncle at hotel Hill last Sunday.

Mrs. H. G. White, of White's Island is very sick at this writing.

George Wilson, of Hazen, Ark., went to Napoleon Sunday to visit Sam T. Hoff and family.

Libert Brown of Lakeview, went to see his best girl Sunday evening and he says the hounds were fastened in their kennel all O. K. this time.

The M. B. A. lodge are re-organizing their order in our little village, we wish them much success.

Ask Nelson and Charley who will get the new hat?

Wedding bells are chiming in our vicinity.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, LaGrippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at P. H. Franklin's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CRETCHER

People are beginning to move.

The report is that John Cook will be living among us again soon. He has rented the J. T. Curry place.

Oath Van Buskirk is moving to the Casper Oakes' farm, so is Milton Kuykendall moving to a place north of town.

Wm. Thompson has rented the Sam Smith farm. Sam Smith is going to Texas. Henry Akeman moves to his farm where Wm. Thompson now lives.

Casper Oakes will have a public sale Feb. 14th at his farm, one and one-half miles southwest of here.

John Henry is hauling corn to Philip Trautman.

George King and his family and Jas. Simmons and his family are going to north Dakota the middle of next month.

Mrs. Walter Coffey and two little sons of Kansas City, are visiting Mrs. Coffey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sims.

A crowd gathered at the home of John Henry last Wednesday night. Will Shores and Ed Sims furnished music. They were all served with popcorn balls, apples and cookies.

Henry Jackson and family J. P. Wilson and family, Dan Scott and Will Shores all gathered at the home of G. R. Akeman last Thursday night. Music was played by Will Shores, Harry Jackson, Misses Eliza King and Nancy Akeman.

John Turner and family were visitors of Caspar Oakes last Sunday.

Wm. Treece is still sick.

The weather is pretty cool isn't it?

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sims were visiting Mr. Sim's father, Tom Sims, the former part of last week.

Preaching at Antioch church Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night by Rev. Carter.

News is scarce for the roads are too bad to get out to hunt any.

SLATER

Died, recently, in Independence Mo., of pneumonia, Mrs. Mary Frances Donohew at the age of 65 years, some months and days. Funeral services were held in the Christian Church last Thursday morning at 10 am., conducted by elder Shanklin, of Marshall. The body was laid to rest in the city cemetery, beside her husband, who died several years ago. The deceased moved to Slater from the country several years ago and has lived from time to time several years in Slater. She was a faithful member of the Christian Church, with which she united a good many years ago. She leaves a family of four sons to mourn her loss, besides many relatives and friends.

A company consisting of R. P. Gwinn, Jno. Reynolds, Dr. Howard and others left a few days ago for Kansas and probably further west to look at land in the western country. Mr. Gwinn will likely go down to Texas to see his son, Stanton, who is quite poorly.

Dr. Ross made a trip to Marshall last Wednesday to meet the Pension Examining Board, of which he is a member.

Louis Pierson, familiarly known as "uncle Louis" in east Slater, has been quite poorly for some time. He is getting along pretty well in years and more than likely his earthly race about run. He was a slave in time of slavery and still manifests the manners and obedience characteristic of one of the old time slaves.

Mrs. Wm. Reid, of Marshall made a trip to Slater last Tuesday and returned the next day. She reports that Arthur is getting along quite well with his fractured limb.

COLLEGE NOTES

The freshmen flag floats freely from highest pinnacle of the college.

The boilers have arrived at the power house after these ages of questioning "Have the boilers come?"

We understand that the Masonic lodge is advertising for a few goats as Dr. Black broke the back of the old one riding it Tuesday night.

A challenge has been received from Westminster for a debate. It was accepted and Messrs. Fry and Gross were elected to represent us in this contest.

Have you heard about the comedy to be given by the Athletic Association this (Friday) evening at 8 in the chapel? The play is, "She Stoops to Conquer." Admission 25c.

There will be a join Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. social at the chapel next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Hill says that he's had enough training for the after-world now and has left the dormitory boys with their works.

Last Tuesday morning the Y. M. C. A. elected the following officers for the ensuing year: V. P. Garst, president; W. M. Bailey, vice-president; Bo ne Gregg, Secretary; E. E. DeLong, treasurer; Carl Filler, usher.

The next number on the lecture course will be next Wednesday evening, when the musical monologist, Frank Bingham, will be here. Come.

ROSE VALLEY

Liberty School commenced Monday the 4th of February after a vacation of two weeks on account of coal.

Misses Nannie, Minnie and Myrtle Thomas spent Friday night with Miss Gertrude Withers, and several other young people spent part of the same evening there.

Otto Harms and wife spent Sunday at H. Rinewald's. H. Kueker and Dick Alpers also spent Sunday evening there.

D. Alpers helped Mr. Rinewald haul some hogs to Sweet Springs Tuesday.

Peter Viets had the Farmers Mutual Telephone Company build a line to his house and put a phone in Monday. Now, girls, if you want to talk to the boys, just ring up 1820.

S. M. Leonard delivered hogs at Sweet Springs Saturday.

Geo. N. Hansen
EXCURSION
MARSHALL
PAPER AND WALL PAPER HOUSE

LITTLE ROCK

Pat Dysart died Monday evening at 5 pm. having been sick with a paralytic stroke since Monday evening, but some few months before he was effected with one but had about recovered from it when he was seized with another one. We join in sympathy for the family. He leaves a wife and ten children to mourn his loss, besides numerous friends and relatives. The burial took place Wednesday morning at 11 am.

A party took place at Mr. and Mrs. Teckemeyer last Thursday evening. All present report a very nice time. The party was given in honor of his daughter's birthday.

Frank Keso has lately bought the Robeson farm of 44 acres four and a half miles north west of Little Rock for $2,700. Mr. Keso previously lived in Osage county, but lately moved here and at present is living on the Bowser place west of Little Rock, but will move this spring to his new farm.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keso who has been very sick with pneumonia is well.

Wm. Gaby and Tinker Thonton are the contractors for building the new building for Harry Boekstedter.

Mr. Shaffer has been quite sick in the upper bottom, but is on the mend.

Adolph Cramer is still visiting Ehler Bros. He seems to like this place fine, but maybe it is the girls that he likes so well.

The End of The World

of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by P. H. Franklin's drug store.

(Crowded out last week.)

Fred Windmeyer was up from Nelson Friday and didn't forget the editor—nor the dollar!

Annainas Banks, of Napton, sent in his renewal Monday.

Louis Fisher was a pleasant caller from Gilliam Monday.

Geo. Giger, our valuable Saline Valley correspondent, dropped in Monday morning while on his way home from an extended visit the counties in the eastern part of the state. Look out for Saline Valley now and "What I saw in Osage."

Misses Nannie Nichols and Stella Heying, of Miami, called Monday to order the Republican for Clarence Nichols, who is attending school in St. Louis.

L. Driskell, of Blue Lick, was a Marshall visitor Saturday. He dropped in and ordered the Republican and Globe-Democrat for his father, L. Driskell, also of Blue Lick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Chaffee, Mrs. Agnes Utz and son, Frank, Mrs. Belle Payne and daughter, Miss Nora, M. E. Tribble, Dr. C. H. Briggs and M. Opper attended the Payne-German funeral at Malta Bend from here Tuesday.

To Our Readers

You have the privilege of placing your legal notice in any paper you desire, and we will appreciate it if you will send it to the Republican. And don't forget us when you want good job printing at a low price.